It is hereby recognized that all equestrian sports involve inherent risk and that no helmet or protective equipment can protect against all foreseeable injury. I hereby accept the risk and hold harmless EC, the competition, their officials, organizers, agents, employees and their representatives. The person responsible agrees to the release of any information on the entry form to EC.

The Person Responsible for a horse must be an adult who has, or shares, responsibility for the care, training, custody, and performance of the horse and who has official responsibility for that horse under EC or USEF Rules and is liable under the penalty provisions of the applicable EC or USEF Rules for any rule violations. The Person Responsible is ultimately responsible for the condition, fitness and management of the horse and is alone responsible for any act performed by himself / herself or by any other person with authorized access to the horse, in the stables, elsewhere on the grounds or while the horse is being ridden, driven or exercised. The Person Responsible must hold a valid EC Sport License in good standing and at the same level or above the horse's competition level and an NBEA or PTSO membership. However, when the competitor is a Junior, the competitor cannot be the Person Responsible and the Person Responsible may be a parent/guardian who must hold a valid NBEA or PTSO membership.

A: For adult entries into EC sanctioned competitions the Person Responsible shall be either the trainer, the owner of the horse of the competitor who rides or drives the horse during the EC sanctioned competition.

B: For Junior entries into EC sanctioned competitions the Junior competitor cannot be the Person Responsible. For Junior entries the Person Responsible may be either the trainer, the owner of the horse, or a parent/guardian of the Junior competitor. Every entry form for an EC sanctioned competition must identify the Person Responsible.
