

How to Become A Rider Level Examiner

Prerequisites:

All examiners candidates must be

- Equestrian Canada Licensed Instructors or Coaches
- Current and NCCP Certified.

Process:

- Candidates must attend a classroom presentation of the levels;
AND
- Candidates must shadow examinations completing their own set of marking papers
  - to the satisfaction of three examiners from the list of approved examiners;
  - OR
  - to the satisfaction of the Master Evaluatorand submit Approval form below from each to the NBEA.

Staying current

- Examiners must attend any training events as may be required from time to time by the NBEA.

Note:

- Instructors may test to Rider 4 but not own students and may only test the jump component if certified Instructor with Jump again not their own students.
- Competition Coaches including Specialists may test to 8 and may not test their own students from Rider 5 and up.
- Examiners may only provide Approval forms for levels currently approved to evaluate.

General Information on who may test what levels:

English Rider Level 1-2 - May be own Instructor or Coach meeting above-noted requirements.

English Rider Level 3-4 – May be Instructor or Coach meeting above-noted requirements but instructors may not test own students. Note: If candidates are NOT doing the Jump Module, then Instructors without the jump module may evaluate (again not their own students.)
