- ensuring that owners, trainers and exhibitors and their agents exercise appropriate care and responsibility in handling, treatment and transportation of their horses as well as horses placed in their care for any purpose;
- providing for the continuous well-being of horses by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort and safety;

- Individuals who interact with horses must also adhere to EC's policies as they relate to horse welfare.

The standard by which conduct or treatment will be measured is that which a person, informed and experienced in generally accepted equine training and exhibition procedures, would determine to be neither cruel, abusive nor inhumane.
