

Call for Interest in Serving on the NBEA Nominations Committee

The NBEA is seeking two senior members to serve on its Nominations Committee with Chairperson Karla Adams. The committee will prepare a nomination package and verify the requirements of nominees for a position as a director at large on the NBEA Board of Directors.

Responsibilities:

- The Committee shall approve a nomination package and form.
- The nomination committee will be responsible to recruit, solicit, and receive nominations for elected or appointed Directors at Large, with input and suggestions from the current Board.
- The Committee shall call for nominations and gather applications. The applications will be reviewed to ensure all criteria are met and successful candidates will be notified. Names and bios will be forwarded to the newsletter editor for dissemination to the membership.

Time Commitment:

Committee members would need to attend two or three Zoom meetings between striking the committee and mid-September. Members would also need to be available to help run the election at the AGM in late October, if there is a need.

Committee members may serve a term of two years, up to a maximum of four years.

Criteria:

- Senior 2022 member
- Member in good standing
- Cannot be seeking nomination to the Board him/herself

Although the committee is small, we are hoping for balanced representation of locations and equestrian backgrounds.
