

NBEA LTED JUMPER Long Term Equestrian Development 2026

Preamble:

The 2026 NBEA LTED focuses on the Learn to Compete and Train to Compete phases of the Long-Term Equestrian Development pathway.

The LTED for Jumpers will consist of two clinics with Equestrian Canada Licensed NCCP Competition Coach Specialist – Jumper Jason Milburn.

The clinics will be offered at both Geary Hill Stables outside of Fredericton and in the greater Moncton at 51 Acres Stable. Riders may apply for either location regardless of their place of residence.

Program format

- Online seminars and quizzes will be hosted on the NBEA's ECampus to assist with pre-season preparation.
- Two 2-day clinics will be held. Moncton and Fredericton venues are being made
- available.
- Semi-private and small group lessons, one per clinic day.
- All riders will attend two training camps. Each camp includes two days of training.
- Riders may choose to attend their two camps either in Moncton or Geary.

Registration fee: $320.00 for two 2-day camps

Rider participation in the clinics will be highly subsidized by NBEA LTED funding. Fees are kept to a minimum.
